This have been my first experience for me about the project, I have worked in few parts of it. All was new for me. If my experience will continue, I'll be able to understand what to change about the project. The only negative experience is the foreign languages.	Respondent 10203303
1) There should be more involvement of the school management to reduce the difficulties in organizing the various activities. 2) Maybe I would change the duration of the project: from three to two years to make it less dispersive. 3) Finally, I would like to include more online activities such as video-conferences or, on the internet, I would like to form working groups composed of pupils from different countries to develop communication and study skills in a foreign language.	Respondent 10203133
I would add another staff training event and mobility (in the first/second year); I would update and implement the use of social media: the project started with fb as the mean social medium, but now sts are using other media (e.g. Instagram, etc); I woul increase connection from schools amongst students to work together from their own countries.	Respondent 10194037
I was not a coordinator, so I can't really say what would be worth changing. In general, our students have enjoyed being part of it and have benefited from getting to know other people in different countries.	Respondent 10187095
I would not change anything.	Respondent 10167223
Pupils' age: they should be younger in order to take part to the whole project. More participants (both pupils and teachers. They demand it!). Could UE agree? More relationship between head teachers, because it could garante a better organization.	Respondent 10115217
